We introduce you, medical students, to the course which you have successfully chosen as a lifetime career.

Short Overview of 1st Year MBBS Subject:

Anatomy:

Anatomy is the subject concerned with the study of the structure of Human Body. Anatomy is derived from Greek word “Anatome” means “to cut up”. Anatomy includes appearance and positions of the various parts, locations & their relationship with other parts of body.

Human Anatomy is broadly studied as:

1. Gross Anatomy: Study of structure of Human Body.
2. Histology: Microscopic structure of various tissues.
3. Embryology: Study of development of embryo.

Physiology:

Physiology term is derived from Latin word “Physiologica” which means “Natural Knowledge”. Human physiology is the science that deals with the normal functioning of human body system and its regulation. Various systems including nervous system, muscular system, cardiovascular system, respiratory system, excretory system, endocrine system, gastrointestinal system & reproductive system function in a co-ordinated manner to maintain normal life. Any disturbance in normal physiology leads to disease.

Biochemistry:

Biochemistry deals with molecules of life. As life is made up of molecules, diseases are also caused by misbehaving molecules. You will study relationship between molecules and disease. You will also learn how drugs and other health strategy can streamline molecules and thereby help in removing pain and diseases. You will learn biochemistry through lectures, practicals, case studies and will have comprehensive help for study including college website and Telegram solve your queries instantaneously.

The department of Biochemistry, Government Medical College, Surat is committed to quality teaching to undergraduate, post graduate medical students as well as Nursing and Physiotherapy students. The department is also doing outreach activity like teaching laboratory medicine to technical staff of PHC, CHC and district hospitals.

The department runs NABL accredited Clinical laboratory to cater needs of patients of New Civil Hospital Surat.

Community Medicine:

Over the period; medical science has evolved from the supernatural theory to a modern science. The subject Preventive & Social Medicine (PSM) is the relatively newer discipline conceptualized in the early twentieth century. Even after its conception, it has kept on growing and changed. It started as only preventive medicine which was to be applied to healthy people, customarily by actions affecting large population, with primary objective to disease prevention and health promotion.

Later on a social medicine which emphasizes the strong relationships between medicine and social science, and deals with more of study of epidemiology and medical care of society came on the surface.

The true measure of success is how many times you can bounce back from failure.
