March 29, 2017

Dear Dr Jayesh Brahmbhatt,

PD Hinduja Hospital & Medical Research Centre in collaboration with King's College, London is organizing a conference on "New Frontiers in Breast & Thoracic Malignancies" from 21st to 23rd April 2017.

This multi-disciplinary conference aims to cover surgical, radiation and medical oncology along with epidemiology, imaging and newer applications in diagnostics. The faculty consists of leading Indian colleagues, who are experts in the respective fields along with faculty from King's College, London.

We extend a warm invitation for the three days of the meet. We are sure that your interaction will benefit all of us. We request you to kindly circulate the brochure to your department colleagues and post graduates students. We encourage their presence and interaction during the conference.

Hoping to see you and your colleagues and students on 21st – 23rd April 2017.

The brochure is attached for your kind perusal.

Thanking You,

Dr. Asha Kapadia
Head of Department
Medicine & Oncology

Dr. V Kannan
Head
