

9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22
23 24 25 26 27 28 29 30 31
M T W T F S S M T W T F S S

050-316

WEDNESDAY • FEBRUARY

19

5.5.3 → Documentation of examination procedure

→ 7 - purpose of examination

- Required equipment & reagents
- Environmental & safety controls
- Calibration procedures (metrological traceability)
- Quality control procedures
- principle & method of procedure used
- procedural steps
- Interferences (lipemia, Hemolysis, drugs, bilirubinemia)

- Biological reference intervals or clinical decision values

- Reportable interval of examination results
- Alert / critical values where appropriate
- Laboratory clinical interpretation
- potential source of variation
- References
- Principle of procedure for calculating results
- Instruction for determining quantitative results (when result is not within measurement interval)

- Type of Sample (serum, urine, plasma)

- patient preparation

- type of container & additives

→ written in language commonly understood by staff in laboratory

→ Be available in appropriate location.

■ 2020